The Senior Class

"Ah, no more such noble warriors
Could be found on earth as they were."

It was a bright morning in September, 1932, but to one hundred eleven timorous youngsters, standing at the door of a big adventure, the sky might have been overcast with the blackest clouds. What if they should unknowingly commit a grave error, or worse, a comic one? For days they slid along hesitatingly and fearful. Gradually confidence returned under the leadership of Edward Kurtz, and the brilliant record they began back in 1924 continued through the intervening years. This class, the largest ever entering R. H. S., has always been recognized for its high scholastic average.

As sophomores in 1933-34 they smiled knowingly at the trailing freshmen and marched on after their captain, Russell Rowen.

Their junior year found them at the head in every field of endeavor. Recognition in commercial contests especially exhibited their ability. Joe Larsh was the junior president and leader of the successful Junior-Senior Prom.

As seniors they showed their sterling worth when they added still more to their long list of worthwhile accomplishments. Sue Maines was the leader. The debate team, of which three members were seniors was most successful. Maurice Karnowsky, a veteran debater proved his remarkable ability by debating on both the negative and affirmative teams. The members of the class of 1936 on the basketball squad had the unique distinction of helping to win the first sectional tourney banner in the history of R. H. S.

The senior class presented "Seventeen" on May fourteenth at the Armory as their final dramatic production under the able guidance of Miss Myer. The entire cast received much admirable applause from the audience.

Junior Class

"Of the past the old man's thoughts were,
And the children of the future."

In the fall of 1934 the freshman class under the leadership of our sponsors, Miss Kresler and Mr. Bundy, elected Frank Hoover, president; Martha Halstead and Wayne Comer as vice-president and treasurer. The class numbered only sixty-four. After we had become acclimated to our new surroundings we began the business of proving our worth. Many of the members acquired positions in the various extra-curricular fields of endeavor.

The next year we, as haughty sophomores were allowed to take our places with the upper classmen in the large study hall. This year Wayne Comer, as president, assisted by Daniel Waymire and Frank Hoover guided our class activities. The latter two were strong contenders for places on the basketball team. Bethel Bishop and Floyd Stath received the Tri Kappa award for the highest scholastic records.

Now the wheel of time has revolved once again and we find ourselves as dignified juniors. At the regular fall class meeting we elected Edward Robinson, president, with Hugh Davison and Esther Swartzell as his colleagues.

Neal Michael and Edith Birdsall played leading roles in our class play, "Kempy," which was successfully directed by Miss Dye. They were admirably supported by Ruth Kanney, Glen Kingman, Sarah Jane Hoyes, Marie Rowen, Dean Porter and Bob Conley.

The class officers aided by every member of the class enthusiastically directed the Junior Prom.

Sophomore Class

"Out of childhood into manhood,
Now had grown my Hiawatha."

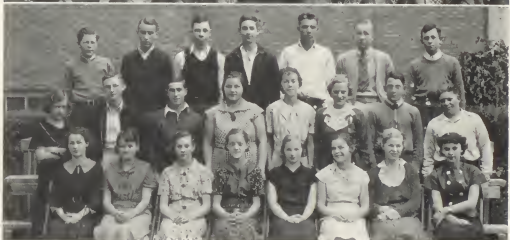

In the fall of 1934 eighty-eight freshmen entered Rensselaer High School. Under the careful guidance of Miss Murphy and Mr. Jardine and with their president Charles Beaver, they passed a very successful school year by entering into the various school activities.

On September 10, 1935, eighty sophomores were enrolled in the school. The class officers were elected at the first meeting with the new class sponsors, Miss Lawrence and Mr. Post.

The sophomores were well represented on the Rensselaerien staff and had one member on the Chaos staff. Elizabeth Carton was one of our peppy yell leaders and Mary Brusnahan was an industrious worker on the debate team.

In the spring of 1935 Millicent Rose and Charles Beaver were awarded the Tri Kappa prizes for having the highest scholarships in our class.

Edward Smith was on the football squad and took an active part in the games. He was also an active player in basketball. Charles Beaver was on the 'B' team and assistant manager in athletics.

Freshmen Class

"But they heeded not the warning
Heeded not these words of wisdom."

On September ninth, 1936, one hundred and eight freshmen entered R. H. S. Although things were new to them, they quickly adapted themselves to the routine of high school life.

Many girls became enthusiastic members of the Sunshine Society, G. A. A., and Dolly Madison Club. Suzanne Hopkins was the freshman member of the Chaos staff. A large percentage of the boys became helpful members of the Hi-Y, Future Farmers Club, and athletic teams. Norman Bauman was an outstanding basketball and football player.

Many freshmen were active members of the Classical Club, Kathryn Kirk being elected treasurer.

In Masque and Wig plays they were always represented. Suzanne Hopkins played the leading role in the musical production "Tune In."

Sunshine Society

"O my children
 Love is sunshine, hate is shadow
 Life is checkered shade and sunshine
 Rule by love, O Hiawatha!"

In 1922 the Sunshine Society of Rensselaer High School was organized under the leadership of Miss Grace Norris. She was the faculty sponsor of this group until 1929 when she was succeeded by Miss Spencer. In 1934 Miss Sprague assumed the sponsorship.

The purpose of the society is to spread cheerfulness and sunshine throughout the school and community, and to lend a helping hand to comrades in need.

This year found the organization larger than ever with 97 members. At Christmas, baskets were distributed to the needy, a party for unfortunate children was held in the gymnasium, and gifts were sent to the inmates of the Country Home. All the girls derived great pleasure from giving these gifts.

The district Sunshine Convention was held at Kentland. Mary Ellen Hooker and Martha Brunsahan attended and brought back interesting information and suggestions. Several members attended the state convention at Monon on March 28 and had a very enjoyable time. A clever scrap book was made by the society and sent to the state convention.

Hi-Y

"We have found you great and noble,
 Fail not in greater trial,
 Faint not in the harder struggle."

Hi-Y, under the leadership of Frank Hoover, President, and Mr. Clark, Sponsor, has accomplished the aim of the club.

As a social activity the Hi-Y held their annual dance at the Armory on January 3. The "Certain Six" furnished music for the affair.

At Christmas, Hi-Y aided the Sunshine Society in preparing Christmas baskets, thus helping to build up the Christmas spirit in the community.

During the year several interesting talks were given at the bi-monthly meetings. Among the speakers were Reverend Mullen, Representative Charles Halleck, John Hopkins, Reverend Smart and Dr. M. D. Gwin. Dr. Gwin also brought to the club two interesting U. S. Army officers, Majors Brett and Irvin, who spoke to the boys on Medical Care in War and Its Development.

Other officers of the club were Robert Wilcox, vice president; Russell Morton, secretary; Robert Stewart, treasurer.

Dolly Madison

"Make a cloak for Hiawatha,
 Made a banquet in his honor."

The Dolly Madison Club, which is affiliated with the American and the Indiana State Home Economics Association was organized in Rensselaer High School by Miss Helen Hershman. This year the club had about fifty members under the sponsorship of Miss Elizabeth Lamson.

The annual Christmas party and exchange was held at the Home Economics room. In the spring, two parties were given, one for the local chapter of the Future Farmers Club and the other in honor of the Senior members of the club. The initiation was held in October.

Many interesting and instructive speeches on charm were given throughout the year by several speakers at the monthly meetings.

Fern Gaines served efficiently as president aided by Gladys Shaw, vice president, Margaret Scott, secretary, and Ruth Barlow, treasurer.

Future Farmers

"All around the happy village,
 Stood the maize fields, green and shining,
 Filling all the land with plenty."

The following officers were elected at the beginning of school for one year, Donald Cromer, president; Charles Epler, vice-president; and Otto Hayes, reporter and secretary.

The Jasper County Corn Show was the biggest event sponsored by the Future Farmers. It was held November 20-21-22 at the Armory. The following officers were elected, Donald Cromer, superintendent; Delos Luers, secretary; Glen Todd, toastmaster for the annual Corn Growers' Banquet.

Donald Cromer was crowned as Corn Prince of the show, his samples winning both the championships in the vocational agriculture and 4-H Club classes.

The annual State Convention was held at Purdue University on January 16-17-18. Rensselaer was represented by Charles Epler and Austin Moore, as official delegates and Donald Cromer who was the state reporter for 1935. Wayne Toben placed in the state F. F. A. Public Speaking Contest.

A very distinguished honor came to our club when Donald Cromer was selected as state president for the ensuing year. His work in the state organization was laudable and praiseworthy.

Chaos

"Written with little skill of song craft,
Homely phrases but each letter
Full of hope. Read this song of Hiawatha."

Since this is the twenty-fifth edition of the Chaos we endeavored to link the past with today. Through the co-operation of the citizens we have an almost perfect and authentic record of alumni.

The members of the staff gave invaluable support to the editor-in-chief, Fern Gaines, and to her assistant, Lucille Hall. Through the efforts of the business manager, Paul Hall, and his assistant, Dean Porter, a greater sale than ever before in the history of the Chaos, has been secured. Suzanne Hopkins, Norma Bachelder, Bethel Bishop, Flora Shumaker, Edward Kurtz and Lucyl Beaver proved very capable assistants to the editor-in-chief.

The staff, under the leadership of our sponsors, Miss Kresler and Mr. Holt, are confident that this will be a memorable edition of the Chaos.

Rensselaerien

"Longed to read the pleasant stories."

Forty-six industrious students representing all four classes served capably on the Rensselaerien staff this year. This is the greatest number of students who have ever been on the staff. Due to the efforts of these students and the sponsor, Mr. Jardine, the paper was edited bi-weekly.

In 1931, the Rensselaerien staff joined the Quill and Scroll, a national journalism organization for high schools sponsored by Northwestern University. The paper later affiliated with the Indiana Press.

Two aims constitute the platform of the school paper, namely; the promotion of good sportsmanship and a good school spirit, and the making of the Rensselaerien a representative of the student body.

Following a lively subscription sales contest, a banquet was given the winning team by the losers November 17.

Marcia McColly capably filled her position as editor-in-chief, assisted by Edward Kurtz, and Lucilla Hall. Maurice Karnowsky served as advertising manager very successfully, and Wayne Comer was his assistant.

Russell Rowen, Maurice Karnowsky, Mary Brusnahan, Marl Robinson, Mr. Jardine, Robert Johnston.

Debate

"Talking in their native language,
Talking, scolding at each other."

WON

Jefferson
Fowler
North Manchester
Logansport
Wiley of Terre Haute
Wheeler
Morgan Township
Brook (twice)

LOST

Jefferson
Bosse of Evansville
Crown Point

The members of the affirmative debate team were Maurice Karnowsky, Russell Rowen and Mary Brusnahan, alternate. The negative side was composed of Maurice Karnowsky, Robert Johnston and Mary Brusnahan, alternate.

The teams, under the leadership of Mr. Jardine, won nine out of twelve debates, losing three by close decisions. There were two non-decision debates, one with Central of Evansville and one with Crown Point.

Rensselaer won the Sectional held at Brook. In the district final which was held at Gary, Rensselaer tied for the title,

Masque and Wig

"That the feast may be more joyous,
 That the time may pass more gaily
 And our guests be more contented."

Masque and Wig club was organized in 1926 for the purpose of promoting an interest in drama among the members. This aim has been attained this year by discussions on voice, bodily action, pantomime, scenery and other things at the monthly meetings, and by presenting plays.

Under the direction of Miss Myer, club sponsor, a one act play, "How Vulgar," was presented before the Literary Club, February 7. Those in the cast were Hugh Kirk, Paul Hall, Elizabeth Carton, Suzanne Hopkins, Lucilla Hall, and Mary Louise Brunsahan.

In order to finance the club page in the Chaos, two plays were presented before the student body, March 23. Merle Daugherty and Marcia Parkison were in "Oh, Nono!", and Margaret Smalley, Glen Kingman, and Mary Ellen Lane were in "Farewell, Cruel World!"

Chorus

"All the hearts of men were softened
 By the pathos of his music;
 For he sang of peace and freedom,
 Sang of beauty, love and longing."

The orchestra, finishing its second year under the leadership of Mr. Frye has enjoyed a season of many public appearances, the most prominent being a full afternoon concert for the Literary Society, two high school plays, two operettas, and two appearances before the P. T. A. The organization has grown from thirty-eight beginners to fifty-three more experienced and well trained musicians. The orchestra is proud of the fifteen new lighted orchestra desks that add both dignity and efficiency to the appearance of the organization.

The band, a newly organized group this year has been the center of attraction in musical functions, making as many as thirty appearances. It provided the needed extra spirit at all the pep sessions and football and basket ball games. The fine work of the Band Mothers' Council with the help of a few local organizations, accomplished the task of outfitting the entire band with attractive uniforms.

West Lafayette 25 RHS 6

The Rensselaer High School gridders plowed through a successful season against nine formidable opponents, winning five and losing four. Coach Bausman, beginning the year with eight veterans as a nucleus around which he built a powerful eleven, developed many new players who will be invaluable next season. The fighting Indians, as they were known, were never in defeat until the last gun sounded.

Although the size of the team was below the average for high school, they made up for the weight advantage in speed and spirit. The veterans were: Wilcox, end; Rowen, tackle; Johnston and Ballinger, guards; Marlin, center; Kurtz, quarterback; Bausman, halfback; and Morton, fullback. Morton was converted from an end to full back because of the need of weight in the backfield. Robinson, Hoover, Daniels, Smith, and Overton also saw much action during the season.

Starting the season against such opponents as Jefferson, of Lafayette and Lowell, who did not lose a game all year, is a pretty tough assignment for any team. Rensselaer, however, took each one as they came. They made a fine showing although defeated 8 to 0 and 7 to 6 respectively. Then came a winning streak that stretched to four games. The Red and Black beat Valparaiso 14 to 6. They conquered Momence, Illinois, 13 to 0, completely overwhelmed Morocco, an old rival, 60 to 0, and smothered Crown Point under an avalanche of touchdowns 44 to 0. The strong Hobart eleven downed them 13 to 0. Undaunted, the Indians came back and thoroughly whipped Kentland 33 to 0. Badly crippled, the Indians traveled to West Lafayette and came back smarting under a 25 to 6 score.

All during the season, the team displayed a superior brand of ball and this accounted for their good showing. The long runs of Bausman and the plunging of the big fullback, Morton, were some of the features of the season. The Rensselaer machine exhibited its best form against Morocco and Crown Point, literally raining points on them all during the game. Because of losing so many seniors, next year's team will have to be entirely rebuilt. The seniors wish them the best of luck and a successful season.

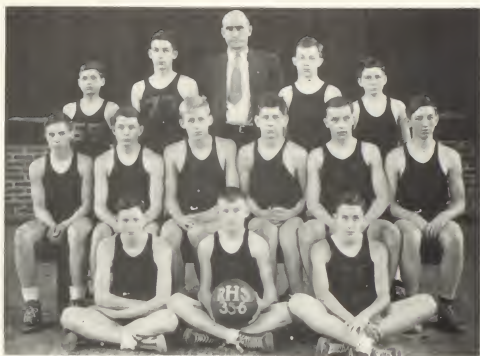

ROW 1: Calvin Anthes, Joe Rowen, Russell Morton, Robert Wilcox, Paul Overton, Frank Hoover.
 ROW 3: Norman Bauman, Merle Malone, manager, Dan Waymire.

Basketball

"With a smile of joy and triumph,
 With a look of exultation
 Stood and waited Hiawatha."

Rensselaer High School won the sectional title. This is a statement that has never before been made in the history of the school. It represents an accomplishment that takes team work, stamina, hard training and practice. The Indians possessed all of these plus the desire to win which makes a basketball team what it is. In this silver jubilee number of the annual Chaos we are proud to announce that this year's team is one of the best if not the best team that ever represented Rensselaer High School.

The title was won also on the hardest schedule of any team in the sectional. Tefft, the county champion, was defeated by the locals who were able to use their second five. Then the Red and Black were called upon to play Kentland, Remington, and Goodland in order. The Indians were equal to the occasion and came through with flying colors. In the final game with Goodland ahead at the half, Rensselaer came back with a withering attack which swept the Bestmen off their feet.

 ROW 3: Robert Ely, Charles Beaver, Byron Nesbitt.

In the Regional which was held at Valparaiso, Rensselaer was forced to play Froebel of Gary in the first game. They were defeated but went down fighting. Since Froebel went on to win the tournament from Hammond, the northern Indiana conference champions, the local fans were well pleased at the showing made by the team. Gordan Bausman was selected as forward on the Regional All Star team.

The first team most of the year was composed of Bausman, forward; Kurtz, forward; Wilcox, Center; Morton, guard; Smith, guard; and Overton, guard. Taylo, Hoover, J. Rowen, Anthes, Waymire, and Long were instrumental in winning the Sectional besides forming a formidable second team.

The feature game of the year outside of the final game of the Sectional Tourney, was the annual game with Winamac. For the last five or six years, this has proved to be the game of games during the season. This year was no exception. With the lead changing hands seven times during the game you can readily see how close it was. With fifty seconds remaining to play and Winamac out ahead three points, Rensselaer seemed hopelessly beaten but Bausman, grabbing the ball put one through the hoop and Kurtz followed with a goal.

 ROW 3: Marion Baker, Robert Shoemaker, Donald Webb.

Track 1935

Although this was the first season that Rensselaer had had a track team in some time it proved that a team can be molded together that is capable of holding its own against any opponent. With a few more experienced lads to bolster the new ones, we hope to have a more successful season in 1936.

The feature of the season was the tying for the sectional title with Brook H. S. In the meet which was held at Kentland, Rensselaer showed their heels to many a foe to gain a tie in the final standings.

During the regular season, meets were held with such outstanding track teams as Delphi, Monticello, Fowler, Brook, Kentland, and an invitation at Chesterton. Rensselaer qualified three individual men for the state meet at Indianapolis besides the half mile relay team. The relay team was composed of Kurtz, leadoff man; Hoover, second; Marlatt, third; and Bausman, anchor. Bertsch qualified for the state meet by tying for first in the pole vault at the Sectional meet. Bausman and Kurtz were also entered in 220 and 100 yard dashes in the State meet.

Not having a track to practice on nor any hurdles to practice with, Rensselaer was handicapped but with the advent of spring this year we were happy to see a large group of boys coming out and striving to secure a position on the team. The balance of the team of 1935 was Wilcox, shotputter; Kirk and Hoyes, distance runners; Daniels and Marlatt, middle-distance; and Russell Rowen, hurdles.

Here, There and Everywhere!
